Event Name: Ofrenda Exhibition Open House & Dia de los Muertos Family Day

Date and Time: Sunday, November 1 from 12:00 pm - 4:00 pm

Location: History Museum Fort Lauderdale (formerly The New River Inn Museum of History), 231 SW 2nd Ave., Fort Lauderdale, FL 33301

Organization Hosting: Fort Lauderdale Historical Society

Event Description: Join the Fort Lauderdale Historical Society as we celebrate the life and the remembrance of loved ones in honor of Dia de los Muertos. Come share your stories, decorate sugar skulls, build paper flowers, and tour the community Ofrenda exhibition on Sunday from 12 – 4 pm.

For thousands of years, the people of Mexico and throughout Latin America have maintained a colorful and vibrant tradition known today as Dias de los Muertos. Today Day of the Dead is becoming an important part of the fabric of our intercultural experience in Fort Lauderdale and beyond.

Memorials for family and community members who have passed away can be found in various cultural and artistic forms of expressions by children, students, adults and artists from all around Broward County.

NOTE: the last day to view the Ofrenda Exhibition will be during the South Florida Day of the Dead Celebration on Monday November 2 from 3-8 pm.

Cost: Free
