

For immediate release

Date submitted: 11/11/15

By: Patricia Zeiler, pzeiler@flhc.org or 954-463-4431 x100

Event Name: Seminole Studio Theater and Visual Art Series opening

Date and Time: Monday, November 16 from 6:00 pm - 8:00 pm

Location: History Museum Fort Lauderdale (formerly The New River Inn Museum of History), 231 SW 2nd Ave., Fort Lauderdale, FL 33301

Organization Hosting: Fort Lauderdale Historical Society

Event Description: Join the Fort Lauderdale Historical Society as we continue to build the Art of Community through Centennial Storytelling with a celebration of Native American Month, featuring interactive visual art and music presentations by leading Seminole artists Elgin Jumper and Gordon Oliver Wareham.

Enjoy beautiful acoustic flute music along with a colorful array of works on canvas while engaging in art and dialogue with the artists. Participants will have the opportunity to acquire a new awareness of our shared land and culture by appreciating our regional history from the perspective of Seminole Painters: Elgin Jumper, Jimmy Osceola, and Stephanie Hall.

Visit our website www.flhc.org for more information or like us on facebook.com/FTLhistory or twitter.com/FLLhistory for frequent news and updates.

#FTLhistory #CentennialStorytelling #DotheDistrict #CFBroward #ArtofCommunity

This is made possible by a grant from the Community Foundation of Broward. Funding for this project is provided in part by the Broward County Board of County Commissioners as recommended by the Broward Cultural Council.

Cost: Free

Contact Information: Call (954) 463-4431 or email pzeiler@flhc.org