

Bonnet House's Popular Birding Classes Return in September!

FORT LAUDERDALE, F.L., August 17, 2016 - Bonnet House Museum & Gardens is offering birding classes for beginner to skilled bird watchers beginning Sunday, September 18th from 2pm to 5pm on the Bonnet House Estate. A recent survey from the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service reported that one in five Americans has an active interest in bird watching. If you're one of the many who enjoy the infinite beauty and variety of our winged friends in South Florida, the next few months will provide you with a great deal of joy at the beautiful Bonnet House Estate. Our extremely popular Birding Classes return, led by birder extraordinaire Paddy Cunningham, who has been a professional Naturalist in south Florida for over two decades.

The first of the individual Classes, "Hawks Galore," will take place Sunday, September 18 from 2pm to 5pm. Subsequent Sunday Classes, also taking place from 2pm to 5pm, will be held on October 23 ("Ascend to Better Birding I-Tools of the Trade") November 6 ("Ascend to Better Birding II-10 Step Approach"), December 11 ("Bird Behavior") January 8 of 2017 ("Birding by Habitat"), February 12 ("Birding by Ear") and March 19 of 2017 ("Birding by Season"). On Saturday, April 8, 2017 there will be a special field trip to Green Cay/Wakadahachedee.
