Bonnet House's Popular Flora & Fauna Classes Begin April 30!

FORT LAUDERDALE, F.L., April 12, 2017 - Bonnet House Museum & Gardens is offering two flora & fauna classes beginning April 30th. The first class is What is that Plant? Local Plant I.D. 101. Attendees will learn how to identify local native plants and trees through simple process of common characteristics. A special take home handout and this workshop will help one identify up to 100 native sub-tropical plants. A brief discussion of leaves edges and flowers will also be included. The second class on May 21st will be Gardening for Butterflies and Birds. Want to attract more butterflies and birds into your yard? This class will give you information on the basics of wildlife gardening and specific plants that can attract birds and butterflies you desire to see. The class will include a workshop with hand outs and a walk around the garden to look for birds, butterflies and the plants that attract them. The cost is $20 for Bonnet House members, and $25 for non-members. To register, visit us at www.bonnethouse.org/calendar or contact Linda Schaller at 954-703-2606 or lindaschaller@bonnethouse.org.
