About Bonnet House Museum & Gardens: Listed on the National Register of Historic Places, Bonnet House Museum & Gardens is a 35-acre, 1930s era estate located on Fort Lauderdale Beach. Bonnet House is open for public tours six days per week, year round and offers an array of cultural and education programs for schools, adults and families. Music students from nearby universities and opera companies gain experience through their performances in the estate's annual Concerts Under the Stars, while orchid enthusiasts have an opportunity to see and buy an exclusive selection of orchids during the Bonnet House Orchid Festival. Art exhibits by regional artists round out the museum's cultural programming. Bonnet House's membership program includes an annual admission pass, and the estate is also available for exclusive private rental for weddings, parties and special events. The mission of Bonnet House Museum & Gardens is to steward the legacy of the Bartlett and Birch families by preserving their historic estate and providing programming that nurtures creative expression, delights the senses, educates, and honors the natural environment.
