

Bonnet House Museum & Gardens
Participates in Broward Attractions & Museums Month (BAMM)
September 2017

FORT LAUDERDALE, FL, July 20, 2017 – Bonnet House Museum & Gardens is now part of Broward Attractions and Museums Month, or BAMM, which means locals can snag some sweet savings to see the best stuff in our county’s treasure chest.

Discover cultural treasures in your backyard during the month of September. Visitors may buy one admission and get a second admission for free, along with other great offers, to 16 participating museums and attractions in Broward County.

Adventures await you, right outside your door! Discover new artists or ancient artifacts, ride on a riverboat or an airboat, explore a botanical garden or a historic house, climb a rope course or feed a flamingo... and so much more.

“Broward County is a prime location with an exceptional array of museums and attractions to enjoy,” says Monica Estevez, Director of Marketing for Bonnet House Museum & Gardens. “BAMM is a great way to explore these places, save money and raise your cultural IQ.
